Educational Options

ABE/GED® Preparation Classes

Students prepare to improve their academic knowledge in Mathematical Reasoning, Science, Social Studies , and Reasoning through Language Arts in order to take the GED® exam. Classes are supplemented with computer assisted instruction.

GED® (General Educational Development) Exam

The GED® test is computer based. The official GED® exam registration is online. For all GED® exam information and registration, visit www.GED.com to set up an account. All students must present a valid CT picture I.D.

AHSCDP (Adult High School Credit Diploma Program)

The Adult High School Credit Diploma Program offers adults the opportunity to earn a high school diploma through Va 11ey Regi ona l Adult Edu cation. Participants may earn credits through a combination of evening courses, documented work or training experiences. Credits may be transferred from public or privatehigh schools and vocational/technical schools.

ESL (English As A Second Language)

These courses integrate reading, writing, listening and speaking skills. Communicative tasks develop language strategies that increase st ude nt s' comfort level in real-world sett ings. Courses include a variety of resources to create a variety of experiences within the classroom .

Beginning ESL: The course focuses on English necessary for everyday life. Emphasis is on listening, conversation, reading, writing, simple grammar and employmentskills.

Intermediate ESL: Students continue to learn life as well as employment skills, combined with a study of higher level grammar, conversation vocabulary, idiomatic expressions, and writing.

Advanced ESL: Students continue to learn life as well as employment skills in this advanced English as a Second Language course for non-native speakers of English. The class emphasizes competency in standard written English with a focus on developing paragraphs and essays. Instruction includes integrating a review of parts of speech, spelling , punctuation and compound/complex sentence structure, as well as continued development of vocabulary, reading and communication skills necessary for success.

Citizenship

This course is designed for students who wish to become U.S. citizens. This course of study includes an overview of American history, the Constitution, and the three branches of government . The basic rights and privileges afforded by the Constitution will bediscussed as well as responsible citizenship.

Enrichment

VRAE provides over 100 face-to face and over 150 online courses to meet the interests and needs of most individuals. Bus trips are available throughout the year. There is a fee for each course/ trip .

Statements for Adult Education Regarding Nondiscrimination, Accessibility and Accommodation

1. Nondiscrimination

Valley Regional Adult Education(VRAE) is committed to a policy of equal opportunity/affirmative action for all qualified persons and does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religious creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression disability (including, but not limited to, intellectual disability, past or present history of mental disorder, physical disability or learning disability), genetic information, or any other basis prohibited by Connecticut state and/or federal nondiscrimination laws. Inquiries regarding VRAE's nondiscrimination policies should be directed to the Adult Education Director, 203 924-6651.

2. General Accessibility and Accommodation

All activities offered by Valley Regional Adult Education are held in accessible locations. Accommodations for individuals with a disability are available upon request. Please contact Lee Wolf, 203 924-6651.

3. General Educational Development (GED®) Test Accommodations

Accommodations for the GED® test are available for qualified individuals with a disability. For more information, contact the Adult Education Director, 203 924-6651. You may also contact Sabrina Mancini at the Connecticut State Department of Education at (860) 807-2110.

4. No Charge for materials for mandated courses

Valley Regional Adult Education is in compliance with Connecticut General Statutes Sec.10-73a and does not charge fees for registration, textbooks or materials used in mandated program areas.

Student Registration

Each year, Valley Regional Adult Education holds tuition free academic programs during a fall session, spring session and if available, a summer session. Student registration and orientation are planned for each session. All student registration is on site and in person.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

School Property: School property must be respected. Offenders will be required to make restitution and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken.

Conduct: Proper behavior is expected of all students attending Adult Education classes. Rude or disruptive conduct will not be tolerated under any circumstances. Behavior not considered proper by the administration will result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the program.

Smoking, Alcohol, and Drugs: In compliance with the regulations of the local Board of Education, smoking alcoholic beverages or illegal substances of any kind are not permitted on school property. This shall include all paraphernalia pertaining to vaping. Violation will result in dismissal from the program. Any student suspected of using or being under the influence of alcoholic beverages or illegal substances of any kind shall be dismissed from the program.

Dress Code: All students should be dressed in a neat, modest, and appropriate manner that is not disruptive to the educational environment. Garments with obscenitie,sgang or drug/alcohol related print are not allowed.

Please Note: In the Credit Diploma Program - No backpacks are allowed.

Parking: Free parking is available on site. Please observe all traffic signs in the school parking lot, be considerate of others, and observe the handicapped parking areas.

Fires and Emergencies: Fire exits are posted in every classroom. Please observe location of the closest exit, and in the case of an emergency, evacuate the building as quickly as possible in an orderly fashion. Once outside, please report to your teacher so that your safe exit can be confirmed.

Visitors: No visitors, including children and families, are allowed in the school.

Personal Possessions: Possession of any dangerous instrument or weapon is prohibited and may result in suspension from the program.

Recording Devices: Students are prohibited from recording any class activities including lessons and teachers.

Office Telephone Policy: The office phone is to be used in case of emergency and with the authorization of office personnel/staff.

Textbooks: Students enrolled in mandated programs are provided the use of all necessary textbooks and are also provided materials used in their class free of charge.

Enrollment Policy: Students enter class on a first come first serve basis. Class capacity is based on a limit of twenty five students in a classroom . If a class is at capacity and a student wants to enroll in a class they will be placed on a wait list and notified when an opening occurs.

Class Eligibility: All students must be at least 17 years of age and officially withdrawn from school. Students who are 17 years of age must have a signed parental withdrawal letter before enrollment. All students must be a resident of Ansonia, Derby, Monroe, Seymour, or Shelton . All students interested in the CDP program must submit an official transcript from the last high school they attended .

Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is forbidden by federal and state law and by the Boards of Education and will not be tolerated in the school. Employees and students are expected to adhere to a standard of conduct that is respectful and courteous to employees of the public schools, other adult education sites, fellow students and the public. Students have the right to an educational environment free of sexual harassment, whether by employees of the public schools, other adult education sites or by other students.

Bullying: Bullying behavior by any student is strictly prohibited. "Bullying" means any overt acts by a student or group of students directed against another student with intent to ridicule, humiliate, or intimidate the other student while on school grounds, which acts are repeated against the same student over time. Students should report any bullying to teachers, counselors, program coordinators, or the program director. Any reports of suspected bullying that are verified, prompt disciplinary action may be taken against the perpetrator, consistent with his/her rights of due process.

Cell Phones: Cell phones need to be on vibrate while in class. No texting or phone calls will be allowed in class. Emergency calls must be taken outside the classroom. With permission of the teacher, cell phones can be used for educational purposes.

Each of these semesters has two sessions

Semester One will meet:

September-October (Session 1)

November-December (Session 2)

Semester Two will meet:

January-February (Session 1)

March-April (Session 2)

All classes meet:

Monday through Thursday	4:30-5:30pm
Monday and Wednesday	5:45-7:45pm
Tuesday and Thursday	5:45-7:45 pm

- Students need 21 credits to graduate.
- Snow days will be made up at the end of each semester.
- A certified counselor is available to students.
- All students must stay in the CDP designated areas.
- Student Services are available to students through Cindy Brouillette

VRAE CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

All students must earn twenty-one (21) credits for the issuance of a Valley Regional Adult Education Diploma.

For students who enter Valley Regional Adult Education 's CDP with 21 credits, they must earn 1 credit with VRAE in order to receive a Valley Regional Adult Education Diploma.

Required Courses

English	4 Credits
Social Science (Including American History/Civics)	3 Credits
Mathematics	3 Credits
Science	2 Credits
Art or Vocational	1 Credit
Electives	8 Credits

In addition, credits MAY be obtained through:

An Independent Study Project

There are three basic formats for Independent Study Projects: Research Paper, Textbook Course and Product Development. The appropriate format used will depend upon the credit area for which the project is being completed.

There are specific guidelines for:

- Procedures for requesting project approval
- Requirements for each type of project format
- Procedures for evaluation of projects

Documented Credits

Students may receive credit for documented life and/or work experiences. Documentation requirements are strict and students can receive credit only when all criteria are met. The three types of documented credits are explained below. Counselors will assist students with the appropriate forms for documentation.

- 1. Military Category-2 credit maximum, elective credit only. One credit can be earned for successful basic training and one credit can be earned for successful specialized training. Discharge must be "other than dishonorable." No partial credit can be awarded.
- 2. Community or Volunteer Service-credit maximum, elective credit only. One credit can be given for participation in community services or volunteer activity with the same agency or institution. One credit can be earned for 100 hours of service and one-half credit can be earned for 50 hours of service. Documentation of community service hours must be prepared by the agency. V RAE counselors will contact the appropriate agency for verification.

3. Occupational Category-2 credit maximum , elective credit only. One credit can be given for work experience, occupational license, apprenticeship training or formalized job training. Counselors will contact employers or appropriate agency for verification. Please see the list below for specifics:

- a) Work Experience:1 credit can be earned for successful work experience which is full-time with the same employer for one year or half-time with the same employer for two years; no partial credit may be awarded.
- b) Occupational License: 1 credit can be earned for a current occupational license earned by the student. The license must have official signature and seal; no partial credit can be awarded.
- c) Apprenticeship Training1 credit can be earned for successful completion of a formal apprenticeship training program based on an employer-employee relationship which leads to proficiency in "journeyman status." No partial credit may be awarded.
- d) Formalized Job Training: 1 credit can be earned for successful formalized job training that is conducted by a recognized school, agency, employer or trade union and which is certifiable. No partial credit can be awarded.

Attendance

Valley Regional Adult Education's AHSCDP has been approved by the Connecticut State Department of Education and is also held responsible for maintaining attendance records on all students enrolled in the program. If a student does not attend a class session, an absence will be recorded in the CARS database.

Students are expected to be present prior to the start of all classes Be in your classroom promptly at 5:45 p.m. Tardiness is not acceptable.

Students will be allowed only two (2) absences for a ½ credit course. Upon the third (3rd) absence, the student will be dismissed from the class. No credit will be given for that class.

Use absences wisely, save them for emergencies, babysitting problems, or sickness. Avoid taking time off for any other reason.

GRADING SYSTEM

The grades used in the AHSCDP are as follows:

A+ 97-100	C+ 79-77
